

Professor Dan Grangaard

Career in Pictures

Born and Raised in

Lakeside Park, Fond du Lac

Dreamed of Becoming a Railroad Conductor or Baseball Player

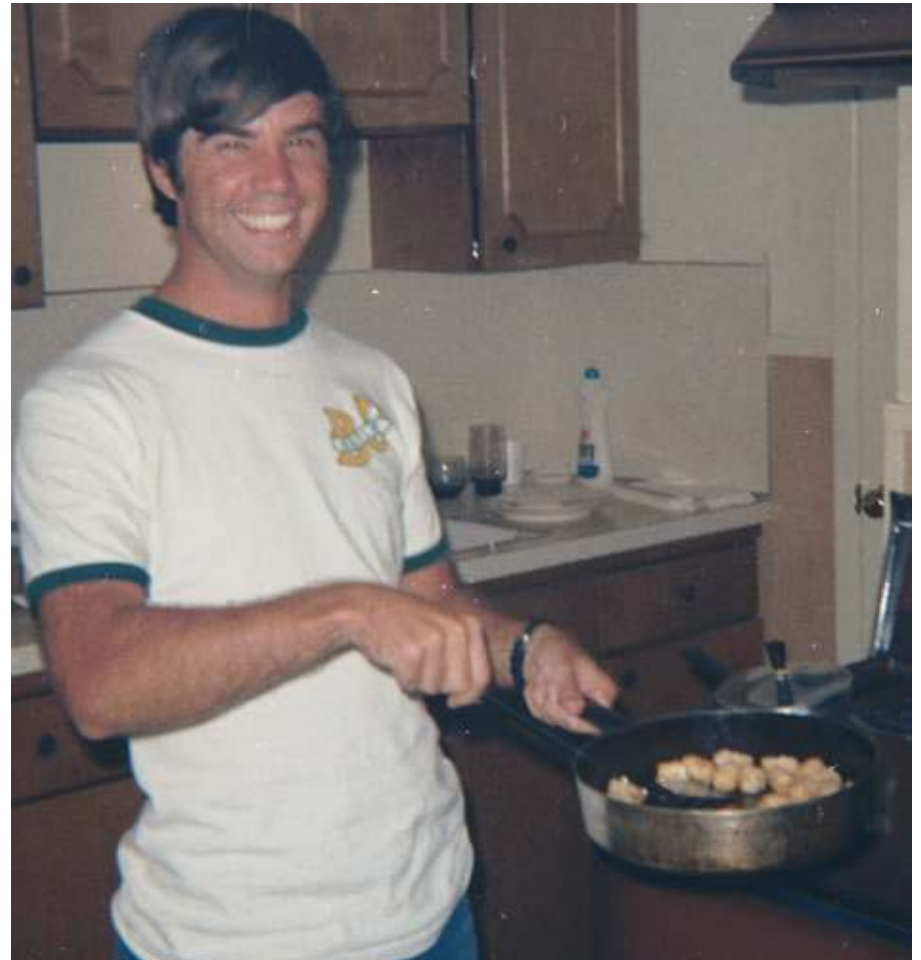

Baylor Freshman with Slime Cap, Aggie Stick

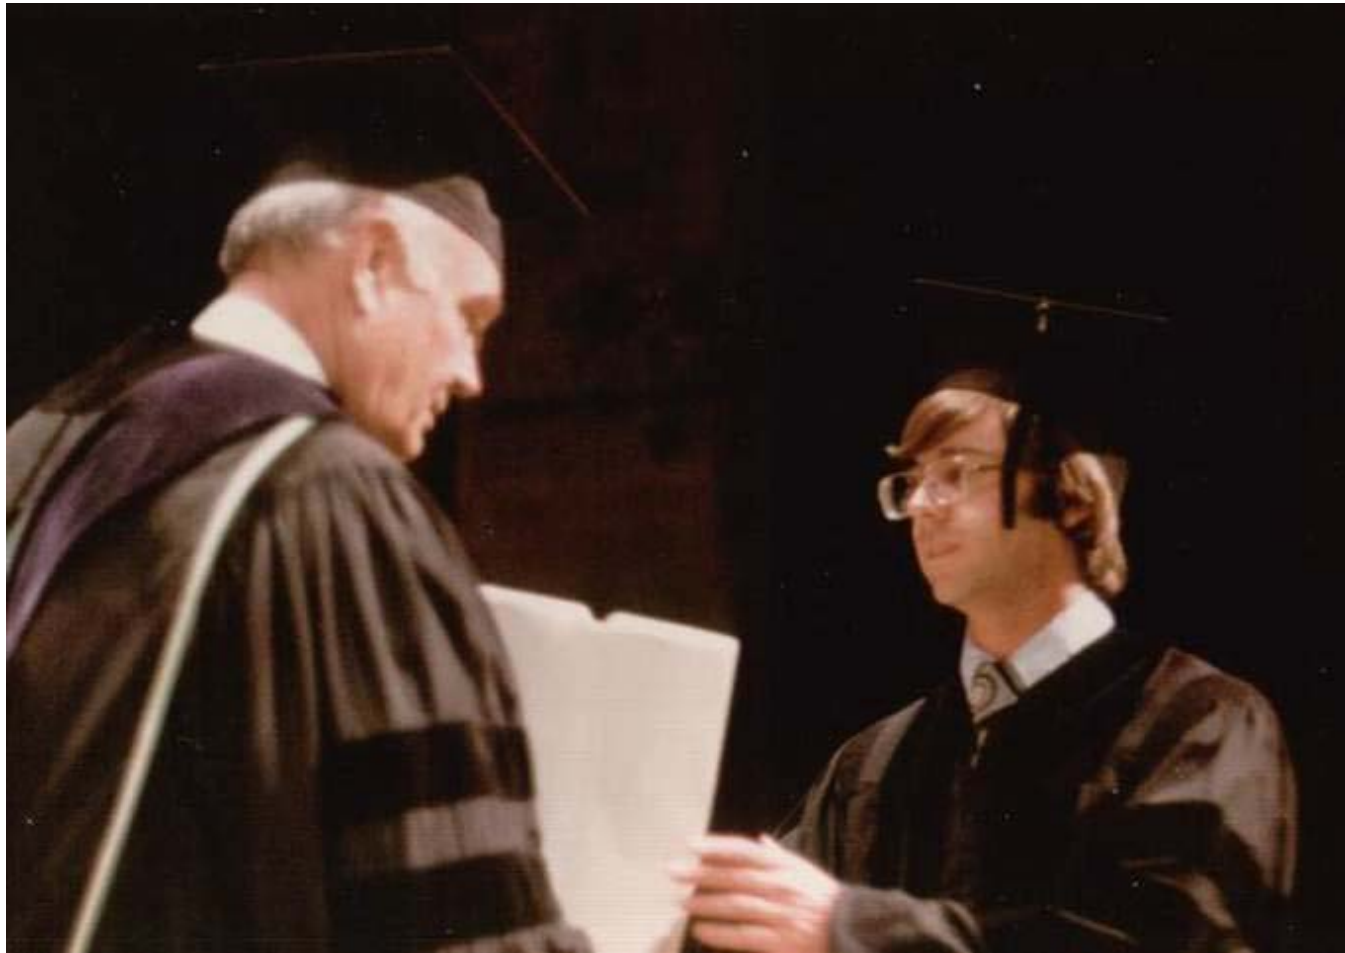

Early 1970's Visit to Austin Atop UT Tower

Graduate School

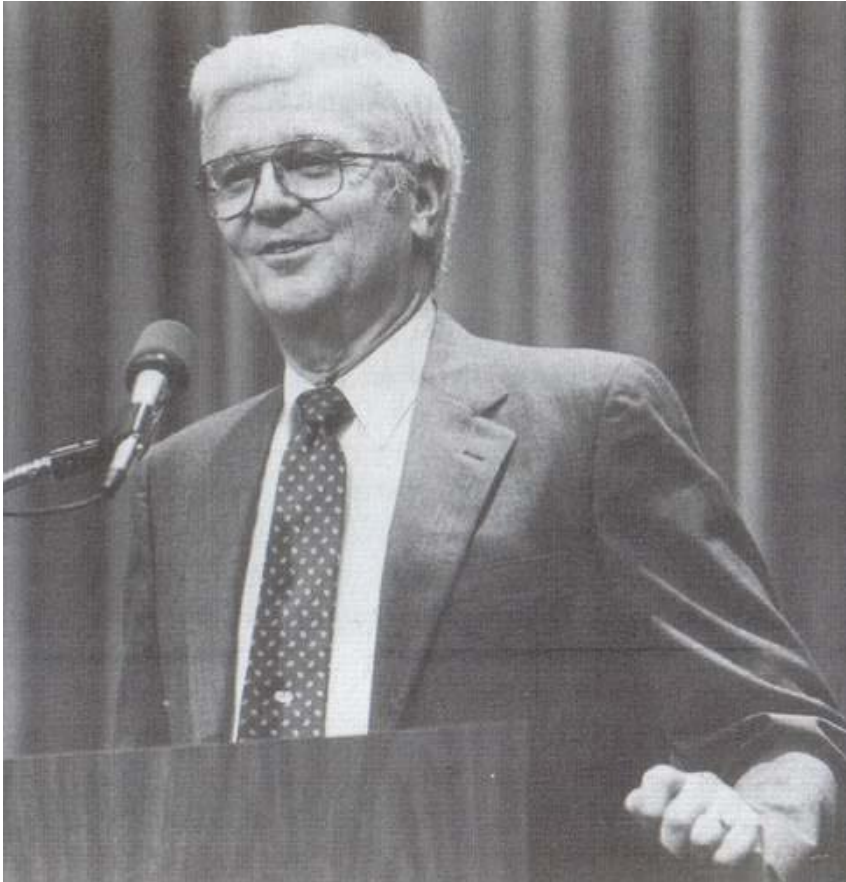

Receiving Doctorate in Educational Psychology at Baylor University

Walking with Dr. Bill Lamkin after Receiving Doctorate

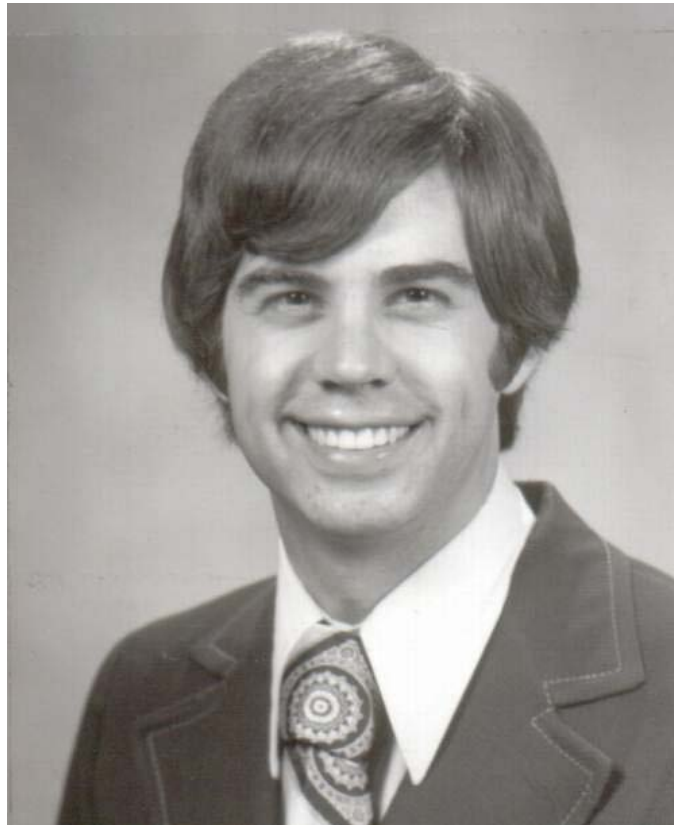

Dr. Bill Lamkin

- Chair, Educational Psychology
- Associate Education Dean (Later Dean)
- My Mentor
- Chair of My Dissertation Committee
- Favorite Professor

School Psychologist Education Service Center Region XII, 1976-77

School Psychologist for Austin ISD 1977-85

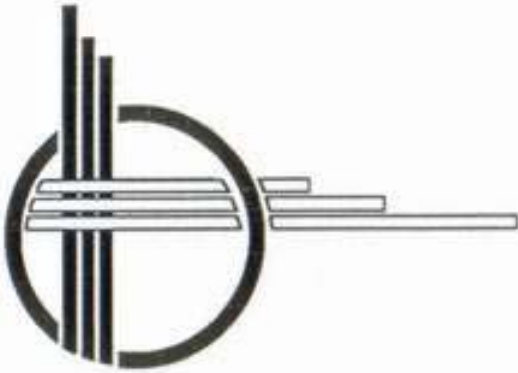

- Darlene Coffman was the Supervisor of Testing and my boss

1984-89 Private Practice at Medical Science Center

Director of Testing & Intern Training, 1989-1995

Minirth-Meier

Tunnell & Wilson
Clinic

Private Practice in Westlake Hills 1994-1999

Adjunct Professor

Grangaard, Daniel

1997-2001

Faculty/Staff

St. Edward's University

Psychology Faculty at Austin Community College Since 1995

Human Growth & Development Class, Summer 2002

Human Growth & Development, Honors, Spring 2004

Human Growth & Development

Summer 2006 Students

2007 Award for Excellence in Teaching

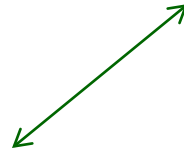

Can I Play? What happened to the Baseball Career?

Pinnacle of Baseball Career: Coached Undefeated Austin YMCA Cubs

Root for Baylor Bears: Big 12 Champs (2000, 2005, 2012)

Thanks for Your Interest in My Career

